Two escaped Indians from the Haskell Institute at Lawrence were captured in the Union Pacific yards in Topeka this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Wilkeson. The Indian boys wore citizens' clothes, but had their uniforms under their coats. They appeared to be full-blooded Comanches, and said they were going to the Indian territory. Aside from this they would say nothing. The Lawrence authorities were notified of the capture by telephone this afternoon.

SUMMER AGAIN.

The Advent of Winter Delayed Again, Owing to the Weather.

Last night the minimum was 51, the hottest night this month. The maximum yesterday was 81. But it won't last long. Observer Jennings says. There is a high barometer up in Montana that is liable to shift the wind to the northwest and make the remainder of this week cooler.

INGERSOLL'S NEW LECTURE

Chicago Auditorium Crowded to Hear His Latest Effort.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—Col. Robert G. Ingersoll was greeted by a crowded house at the Auditorium last night when he delivered his new lecture, "About the Holy Bible." As usual, he held the audience under his control until the last sentence had passed his lips.

Fully 5,000 persons were in the Auditorium. Col. Ingersoll began the address by saying somebody ought to tell the truth about the Bible. The politician, the minister, the editor, the professor, the merchant, the society man, all feared to do so. But somebody, he said, ought to do it, and he would attend to it himself. He believed millions of people believed the Bible to be the inspired word, and forgot its ignorance and savagery, remembering heaven and forgetting the dungeon of eternal pain. The colonel said Moses, for the purpose of controlling his followers, pretended he was instructed and assisted by Jehovah, whom he met face to face on Sinai. The Pentateuch, he said, was not written by Moses.

If the Old Testament was inspired it should contain perfect philosophy, should perfectly accord with every fact in nature, should contain no mistakes in astronomy, geology, or as to any subject of science—nothing calculated to make man cruel, revengeful, vindictive or infamous. It should be filled with intelligence, justice, honesty, mercy and the spirit of liberty and the enemy of war, to slavery and lust, credulity and superstition; should develop the brain and civilize the heart, and, above all, should be true. The Bible did not satisfy this standard, and he said educated Christians admitted the writers of the Bible were not inspired, or, at any rate, it is not moral, as it upholds slavery and sanctions polygamy. Could a devil have done worse? It was not merciful, he said, as in war it commanded the destruction, the massacre, of all—the old, the infirm and helpless, the wives and babes. The Bible, he claimed, is opposed to religious liberty and is the enemy of art. It upholds lying, larceny, robbery, murder, the selling of diseased meat to strangers and even the sacrifice of human beings to the great Jehovah. Colonel Ingersoll denied the truth of the statements made in the ten commandments are the foundation of all law. All the ten commandments that are good are old, and all that were new are foolish, Genesis, he said, had no worth and contradicted itself. In Exodus, he claimed, there is no original sin, no sin of Eve. He compared the books with those of great writers, and declared the authors of Job and the Psalms far inferior to Shakespeare. Jehovah, he said, was not a god of love, and after reading several verses taken from the bible said: "As compared with the authors of the Bible, I am patriotic enough to say that Grover Cleveland has been a brilliant success."

The largest floral piece represents "Gates Ajar," and is made of yellow, white and La France roses and a base of the same beautiful flowers. J. J. Falls and Miss Anne F. Ordway, who were Mr. Dennis' assistants in the library sent an anchor of roses, and Mrs. Hamman and Miss Crosby sent a basket of large white roses. Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Rowley sent a large constructed of La France and Marshall Neil roses and a large pillow of roses was sent by Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Atwood.

The mantle near which the coffin stood is decorated with oak leaves in fall colors.

The interment took place in Topeka cemetery.

Do not forget that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder makes delicious biscuits, griddle-cakes, doughnuts, waffles, pie-crusts and short cake. It's the best.

ASHAMED OF GOTHAM.

"Oh, Can It Be?" Thomas Dixon Registers From Virginia.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—"When I leave the city and register at a hotel elsewhere I always register my residence as Virginia, instead of New York. The administration was made this morning by the Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., in Association hall.

In exulting over what he termed the impending downfall of Tammany, Mr. Dixon said that two years ago had a prophet told him that the present condition of affairs would be brought about if he would not have believed it. Tammany, when flushed with power, possessed the audacity of the devil.

Gilroy was writing articles on the wealth of New York and speculating upon how much of that wealth would go into the pockets of the boys. Croker was setting forth in the "New American Review" the impregnable position of the organization as brought about by his incredible leadership. Croker is now in obscurity and Gilroy could not be induced to make the race for mayor again while Tammany is already retreating, beaten from the field.

The deputy adds that the conquest of Madagascar ought not to be difficult, although the Hovas will probably be commanded by English and German officers.

The princess, according to the newspaper mentioned, will not declare her former religion to be accurate, nor will she state that her conversion is due to the conviction that the truth lies not with her own, but with the Russian church.

It is added that the holy synod will be satisfied with a simple declaration that the princess joins the Greek church in order to be of the same religion as her future husband.
